C.B. 1919

8th. January 1923.

Dear sir,

Your D.O.No.3568/C.B.107-22-3 dated the 8th ult. was received by me all right. Owing to a more than usual acute - bronchial trouble and pressure of work at the time it was not possible for me to write earlier. So far as the D.O. is concerned, I knew the difficulties under the REgulations, and my request was for the favour of waiving these in the peculiar circumstances of my position and the case treated as a special one having regard to the 28 years of admitted service, the broken period of 13 months of service not admissible under the Regulations and the two years furlough to which I have a title. I would not have raised the point, But for the fact that, owing to the recurring bronchial trouble, I thought a certain amount of rest was absolutely necessary in the interests of my health. This I could not obtain easily in the amphibious position in which I am placed at present.

I understand that, as from the 1st instant, the new Regulation ~~admissible~~ in force in British India of full pay leave amounting to six months and furlough in continuation has been -- brought into force in Mysore. If so, I shall deem it a great favour if the Government would sanction me the six months full pay leave. If you would be so good as to inform me whether that is admissible to me and on what terms I shall put the matter before the University here and see whether I can obtain that leave at least.

I have just received from the Mysore University the records relating to my furlough allowances. On that allowance it is impossible for me to take furlough and that makes my position worse than I actually took it to be. In fact, I anticipated about as much and it is a great pity I did not make my position clear before leaving Mysore to take up the office at the Madras University. I need hardly add that this complication makes it more necessary that my case should be treated as a special one in the circumstances represented above. If the Government should be inclined to show me this consideration I shall be glad to put the matter before you officially.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours sincerely,

S. Krishnaswami Ayyangar
